

Please do not weaken the Indiana Telemarketing Call law. It has been so wonderful to enjoy a meal without interruptions. I have received only 2 telemarketing calls since the law went into effect at the beginning of the year. This is about 75 less than I would normally receive in a year.